

Supply Partner Resources

We are committed to doing well by doing good, and rely on the mutual support and commitment of our supply partners to be successful in a way that makes a difference. We're determined to work with the very best suppliers, responsibly and with the highest integrity.

In return, we expect the highest standards from our partners and their extended supply chains. The dynamics of our mutual supply chains continue to evolve as the world around us transforms. We are also ever adapting and changing to deliver our consumer and customer promise while making a positive impact on people and the planet. We aim to inspire all of our partners to prioritize health and safety, quality, sustainability and service while ensuring good value. Our values drive our behaviors and decisions, and we ask you to challenge our thinking for best overall solution. Suppliers who deliver solutions, question the status quo, and are bold and innovative become our long-term, strategic partners. If you are new to Hershey, we look forward to delivering great things. To all of our existing partners, thank you and we hope to collectively grow for years to come.

Partners in Quality

Continuing the legacy of our founder, Milton S. Hershey, our commitment to delivering quality products to our customers and upholding ethical business practices is core to who we are. The Hershey Company (Hershey) views its business partners as an integral part of its success. Our business partners are ingredient, packaging and raw materials Suppliers, Co-manufacturers, Co-packers, and Food Licensees - collectively referred to as Suppliers. The expectations set forth in the manual are a comprehensive set of food safety and quality programs that serve as a solid foundation for our Supplier Quality Management system. We rely on our Suppliers to embrace these programs and implement a culture that continually pursues improvements in food safety. Select the manual below to view the quality expectations.

Our supplier community is a critical component to our success, and we thank you for your continued support and partnership. To remain a top performer, we continually benchmark best practices to provide overall value to our customers and consumers. Effective Jan 1, 2023, The Hershey Company will establish standard payment terms of 120 days in line with general market practice among peer companies. We are appreciative of our suppliers honoring the new 120 days terms that are essential to our growth and competitiveness in today's environment. We welcome any questions you might have in this respect. Please send any questions to: PaymentTerms@hersheys.com

The Hershey Company may require vendors and suppliers to join RapidRatings FHR Exchange depending upon business impact, criticality, strategic partnership, or a myriad of factors. RapidRatings' FHR Exchange is an innovative and secure membership platform for private company suppliers to demonstrate their financial health, be in compliance with The Hershey Company's Third-Party Risk Management (TPRM) program and have more meaningful business relationships through the lens of financial transparency. By securely and discreetly submitting controlled financial information (profit and loss, balance sheet, cashflow statement) via The FHR Exchange, private company suppliers will gain a clear understanding of their own financial positioning, in parallel with The Hershey Company. Please direct any questions to TPRM@hersheys.com.
